Barbara,

Take a look at what I will attach. It should be a file labeled:
DBcmts on FormaldehydeAssessment_050616.docx

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

But, at any rate, the only comments I could see that were more recent should now show with yellow highlighting on the text in the comment bubble.

If any are can't be dealt with at the moment, I will survive!

David

Subject: your comments on Ravi's responses in Response to Comments section

Hi David,

You had mentioned that you had additional comments for the Response to Comments section for the responses revised by Ravi. When I looked there, however, I did not see new comments by you. We had retained your previous comments and Ravi had provided answers with his revisions so you could see what he had done.

I wonder if you could show me where to look? Sorry about that
